Essential Oils

Essential oil blends are combinations of pure oils that all work well together to promote something specific like relaxation, energy or happiness.

These blends of essential oils can be used for aromatherapy or purely for their fragrant purposes.

Why not take a relaxing bath before bed with your favourite essential oil blend, place a few drops of oil on your feet or your palms or use oil burners to diffuse oil throughout the room.

Shake well and apply generously on wrists or back of the neck as desired. As this product range is made of pure essential oil blends we recommend diluting with our base oils if using on skin.

Use your Gemstone Roller alongside our Clay Face Mask Powders

For centuries, clay has been used for medicinal and cosmetic purposes in many cultures. Nowadays, clay face masks are used as one of the most effective treatments for skin problems.

How to make clay mask

- Mix a small amount of the clay with water until it forms into a smooth paste.
- Apply the clay mask on the face or body and allow it to stand for about 10 to 15 minutes, or until the paste dries.
- Rinse with lukewarm water and pat the face dry with a soft towel.

Kaolin Clay 50g Kaolin clay is known for absorbing excess oils or sebum from the skin's surface and gently exfoliates the skin. It is also effective in removing pore-clogging contaminants such as dust, dirt and dead skin that can accumulate on the skin's surface

Ghassoul Clay 80g It is perfect for the care of acne, oily and combination skin, as well as for excessively oily hair. It is a source of silicon, magnesium, potassium, aluminium, copper, calcium, iron, lithium and zinc compounds. Ghassoul clay perfectly mats the skin, reduces the secretion of sebum and regulates the work of sebaceous glands. Cleans, smoothes and soothes the skin

Bentonite Clay 50g Bentonite clay is used to treat acne, wounds, ulcers, skin allergies. Bentonite clay, also known as montmorillonite clay or calcium bentonite clay, is an ancient home remedy that is used for a variety of skin issues. It is a fine powder obtained from volcanic ash.

Fuller Earth Face Mask 80g This type of clay contains various minerals, including magnesium, quartz, silica, iron, calcium, calcite and dolomite. It has exceptional oil-absorbing, cleansing and antiseptic properties and can be used as an exfoliant as it draws out impurities from the skin.

Pink Clay Face Mask 50g Pink kaolin clay is a blend of white kaolin clay and red kaolin clay. It contains: Silicium, aluminium, iron, magnesium, sodium, phosphorus, calcium and other trace elements. This clay is ideal for normal and sensitive skin types due to its unique balance of properties. It helps in stimulating circulation on the skin, exfoliating and cleansing. It does not draw oil from the skin so it's suitable to use it on dry skin. Also, for dehydrated skin.

Green Clay Face Mask 80g Green Illite clay mask is the most sought after for skin conditions and cosmetic purposes. It draws impurities from the pores. This makes it perfect for detoxifying and removing impurities from the skin. Illite clay can be used for both normal and oily skin because of its ability to restore skin to its natural pH balance. It also stimulates blood circulation to the skin to help with many types of skin conditions, including acne, psoriasis, eczema, rosacea, bug bites and sunburn.

Red Clay Face Mask 80g This clay is rich in iron oxide and copper and low in aluminium and it was traditionally used in treating joint pain and washing to protect oneself from infections and disease. Red Kaolin clay has anti-inflammatory property. It's also reduces swelling on affected areas and also stimulates blood circulation.

Yellow Clay Face Mask 80g French Yellow Clay draws out impurities via the skin, detoxifying and helping decongest blocked pores, essential minerals within the clay are released helping heal and repair the skin. It helps stimulates blood circulation to the skin, tonifies and exfoliates gently
